Approved For Release 1999/09/07 : CIA-CPYRGHT

FOIAb3b

CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT

Demanded

Donovan Studies

By DOM BONAFEDE of Our Latin America Staff

new turn in the heartpreaking efforts to release 1,113 Cuban invasion prisoners developed Saturday, reviving cautious hopes that the Castro-held captives may be freed

New York Altorney James B. Donovan, negotiator for the prisoners, reported he had received documents direct from Fidel Castro in connection with talks he recently had with the Cuban premier.

Donovan, who has insisted upon air tight security throughout his mission, declined to rever the contents of the communicate.

"I received this restort and I am studying it," he told newsment in New York.

per in New York.

Purportedly the Castro conmunique included his reply to demanded 62 million dollars in pash but later agreed to acteknowledged that the Havara cept medical supplies and foodtext to the control of the control documents included a "massive list of drugs, medicines an baby foods which Castro has Families of the prisoners in demanded in exchange for the Miami welcomed the latest deprisoners.

The list was so long, he said that it required actalled study Ernesto Freure secretary the Cuban Families Committee, who stayed the Javana during the negotiations personally carried Castro's answer to Miami. Miami.

Miami.

Freyre, who arrived here Friday, said the documents were given to him by Alberto Mora, minister of foreign confimerce in the revolutionary 20 vernment.

The papers were then furness over to Enrique Ruiz-Williams, another members of the committee, who flew to New committee, who flew to New York and handed them over to Donovan.

ΥÏ am very optimistic Freyre said. "I feel the negotie ations are in the last stage."

asked if he was as optimistic as Freyre, Donovan said. "I cartainly hope so. Donovan again stressed that money is involved in the

Jabies Donovan _____iight-lipped

d ansom figure.

elopment but kept their opimism iš check.

"We have been frustrated too many times," one mother said. But we will always be hope-

Approved For Release 1999/09/07: CIA-RDP75-00001R000200010111-2